7. If the answer to either #5 or #6 is “Yes”, the behavior under review is considered a manifestation of the student's disability.

8. If the answer to both #5 and #6 is “No”, the behavior under review is not considered a manifestation of the student’s disability.

Procedure if Misconduct is not a Manifestation of the Student’s Disability:

If the manifestation determination team determines that the misconduct in question is not a manifestation of the student's disability, school personnel may apply the relevant disciplinary procedures to the student in the same manner and for the same duration as the procedures would be applied to a student without disabilities.
Procedure if Misconduct is a Manifestation of the Student’s Disability:

If the manifestation determination team determines that the misconduct in question is a manifestation of the student's disability, the 504 Team should:

1) conduct a functional behavioral assessment unless the district had conducted a functional behavioral assessment before the behavior that resulted in the change of placement occurred, and implement a behavioral intervention plan for the student; or

2) if a behavioral intervention plan already has been developed, review the behavioral intervention plan, and modify it, as necessary, to address the behavior; and

3) return the student to the placement from which the student was removed, unless the parent and the district agree to a change of placement as part of the modification of the behavioral intervention plan.
